

01 FEATURED STORIES

- Farewell Luncheon for the 4th Semester Students
- New Students from All over the World
- Spring Semester Field Trips
- PSPS Soccer Match
- Volunteering Program at Cheongdo Elementary School
- Congratulations on Graduation from PSPS
- Special Chuseok for 'Global Saemaulers'

02 COLUMNS

- "I want to learn Saemaul Undong and spread it back home!"
- 2014 Global Saemaul Forum, Seeking a Global Co-Prosperity

03 HIGHLIGHTS

- Alumni Notes
- 'Saemaul Undong' Begins in Ethiopia!

FEATURED STORIES

01 Farewell Luncheon for the 4th Semester Students

The 4th semester students who were admitted in March and October 2013 gathered for a luncheon with the dean and professors on 28 February and 24 September 2014.

02 New Students from All over the World

PSPS held orientation for new students for the Spring Semester of 2014. Fifty-one students were admitted to the PSPS.

03 Spring Semester Field Trips

PSPS students took field trips during the Spring Semester of 2014.

They visited several places such as Sangju and Yeungju to see the achievement of Saemaul Undong in the development of agriculture.

FEATURED STORIES

04 PSPS Soccer Match

PSPS students had a soccer match to build friendship on 10 June 2014.

06 Congratulations on Graduation from PPS

At the graduation ceremony on 22 August 2014, nineteen students graduated from PPS. With this, PPS has turned out total forty-four graduates.

05 Volunteering Program at Cheongdo Elementary School

On 24 June 2014, PPS students volunteered as study assistants for 5th and 6th graders at Cheongdo Elementary School. This program is managed by Park Chung Hee Saemaul Research Institute.

07 Special Chuseok for 'Global Saemaulers'

A 'Chuseok Festival' for students was held on 5 September 2014 to give an opportunity to experience traditional Korean culture through Yutnori and Jegichagi.

COLUMNS

01 “I want to learn Saemaul Undong and spread it back home!”

PSPS students, Angelika Katrina P. Linga from the Philippines and Noor Azlina Binti Musa from Malaysia were selected as public administration interns in Sangju.

These students learned about Saemaul Undong at the Sangju City Hall and finished the internship successfully.

02 2014 Global Saemaul Forum, Seeking a Global Co-Prosperity

Global Saemaul Forum was held from 27 to 29 August in Gyeongju to share the experience of Saemaul Undong with international society and look for practical ways to improve global co-prosperity and cooperation.

Saemaul Undong is a research model of community development for poverty eradication in developing countries, chosen by OECD and the UNESCO World Heritage.

HIGHLIGHTS

01 Alumni Notes

Kemal Nuredin Mohammed

Kemal Nuredin Mohammed, from the Summer class of 2012, has been recently promoted to the Head of the Bureau of Marketing & Cooperatives in South Nations Nationalities and Peoples Regional State, Ethiopia.

He is now in charge of the Bureau of Marketing & Cooperatives. Major activities of the bureau include establishing modern agricultural marketing systems along with strengthening cooperatives throughout the region.

02 'Saemaul Undong' Begins in Ethiopia!

Director Choi Oe Chool, of the Institute for International Development Cooperation, and President Gedu Andargachew Alene, of Amhara Region, Ethiopia, signed an MOU to establish Saemaul Undong and to cooperate in the rural development of Amhara Region.

Demeke, who graduated from PSPS in October 2013, was promoted to be a public relations advisor for the President of Amhara. He introduced Saemaul Undong as the driving-force of economic development in Korea, which led to the President's coming to learn about Saemaul Undong and signing the MOU. Two teams, one including the President, from Amhara Region visited YU to learn about Saemaul Undong respectively from 8 to 18 June and 20 to 29 July 2014.